FIVE

Amendment of the Bylaws in order to break down the current Corporate Governance, Nomination and Remuneration Committee into two separate committees, one on Corporate Governance and the other on Nominations and Remunerations and defining the responsibilities of the Committees. To this end:

5.1. Amendment of article 21 ter to provide for the Corporate Governance Committee.

Article 21 ter of the Bylaws shall read as follows:

“Article 21 ter.- Corporate Governance Committee

The Board of Directors shall appoint a Corporate Governance Committee that shall exercise the functions attributed it under applicable legislation, the Bylaws and internal Company Regulations, without prejudice to any other functions that may be attributed it by the Board of Directors.

The Corporate Governance Committee shall have a minimum of three (3) and a maximum of (5) external directors, to be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors upon a motion from its Chairman.

The Corporate Governance Committee may request the attendance of the Company's Chief Executive Officer at its meetings.

Members of the Corporate Governance Committee shall cease in their functions when they are no longer Board members or when so decided by the Board of Directors.

The Chairman shall be selected by the Board of Directors from among its independent directors.

The Secretary to the Board of Directors shall act as Secretary of this Committee, and the Deputy Secretary shall act in his absence. The Secretary shall take the minutes of the Committee meetings in accordance with the terms set forth by the Board of Directors.

This Committee shall be governed by the same regulations established in the Bylaws for the Board of Directors, provided that they are compatible with the functions of this Committee.”

5.2. Inclusion of a new Article 21 quáter to provide for the Appointments and Remuneration Committee.

A new article 21 quáter is included in the Bylaws and it shall read as follows:

“Article 21 quater.- Appointments and Remuneration Committee.
