Issue of mandatorily convertible bonds in new shares of Promotora de Informaciones, S.A., by exchange of loans. Capital increase to cover the conversion.

A. Issue of bonds mandatorily convertible into new shares of Promotora de Informaciones, S.A.

It is resolved to issue bonds mandatorily convertible into newly-issued common shares of Promotora de Informaciones, S.A. (“Prisa” or the “Company”) (the “Bonds”), without pre-emption rights, to be carried out in two tranches (the “Issue”) in accordance with the terms and conditions and subject to the bases for and forms of conversion indicated below.

1.1. Issue

The Issue will be carried out in two tranches.

- (a) Amount of the Tranche A of the Issue. The amount of the Tranche A of the Issue amounts to 32,099,050 Euros. This tranche is aimed to HSBC Bank plc (“HSBC”), Títulos de Renta Fija, S.A., Suleyado 2003, S.L., Cantabra de Inversiones, S.A., Cantabro Catalana de Inversiones, S.A., Fomento e Inversiones, S.A., y Carpe Diem Salud, S.L. (“Funds linked to Banco Santander”) and CaixaBank, S.A. (“CaixaBank”), financial creditors of the Company (jointly, the “Creditor Institutions”). The amount of Tranche A will be increased by the amount of the payable interests accrued by the loans exchanged for the issue until the Closing Date (as defined below).
- (b) Amount of the Tranche B of the Issue. The amount of the Tranche B of the Issue amounts to a maximum of 117,900,950 Euros. This tranche is aimed to all the creditors of the Company in accordance with the restructuring agreement called “Override Agreement” subject to English law entered into by Prisa and a syndicate of credit entities on 11 December 2013, of which HSBC acts as agent bank, and that jointly hold profit participating loans (the “Override Agreement”).

1.2. Subscription and payment

- (a) Subscription and payment of the Tranche A of the Issue. The Bonds that constitute the Tranche A of the Issue will be subscribed by the Creditor Institutions through the capitalization of credits. HSBC, CaixaBank and the Funds linked to Banco Santander have committed to subscribe the amount of 32,099,050 Euros, in accordance with the following distribution:

- HSBC: 12,878,070 Euros
- CaixaBank: 9,610,500 Euros
- Títulos de Renta Fija, S.A.: 1,595,340 Euros

- Fomento e Inversiones, S.A.: 1,595,340 Euros
- Carpe Diem Salud, S.L.: 1,595,340 Euros

- (b) Subscription and payment of the Tranche B of the Issue. The Bonds that constitute the Tranche B of the Issue could be subscribed through the capitalization of credits exclusively by the creditors of the Company in accordance with the Override Agreement. The Company has received the commitment of HSBC to subscribe 68,086,000 Euros out of the total amount of 117,900,950 Euros that constitute the Tranche B of the Issue. If other financial creditors part of the Override Agreement were interested in exchanging their respective profit participating loans in Tranche B of the Issue for an aggregated amount greater than 49,814,950 Euros, the amount to subscribe by HSBC will be reduced, distributing the issued Bonds within Tranche B among the applications presented by the subscribing entities proportionally to their corresponding percentage in the Override Agreement.

The commitments to subscribe the total amount of Tranche A by the Creditor Institutions, as well as the 68,086,000 Euros of Tranche B by HSBC, are subject to:

- (i) the procurement of the mandatory reports issued by the auditor of the Company and an auditor appointed by the Commercial Registry.
- (ii) the authorization of the Issue by the syndicate of credit entities of Prisa in concordance with the Override Agreement and with the majorities described in such agreement.
- (iii) the approval of the final terms and conditions of the Issue by the General Shareholders' Meeting of the Company.
- (iv) if applicable, the consent of any third party required under the existent financial indebtedness of Prisa in order to allow the subscribers of the Bonds to declare that their respective percentage of the credits to be capitalized are liquid, due and payable at the Closing Date for the purposes of the conversion into shares.
- (v) the non-occurrence of any material adverse change in the financial condition of the Company, and the non-existence of any suspension or material limitation in trading securities on any of the Spanish Stock Exchanges, the London Stock Exchange or the New York Stock Exchange.

The subscription of the Bonds that constitute the Issue will occur on the date on which the aforementioned conditions are met and the public deed regarding the Issue —which will be registered in the Commercial Registry— is executed (“Closing Date”).

The Creditor Institutions and the other creditors that apply for the subscription of the Bonds that constitute Tranche A and/or Tranche B may pay for and subscribe the Bonds by exchange of the following profit participating loans:

(B) Regarding Tranche B

- Tranche of the profit participating loan mandatory under the facility agreement entered into by the Company and several financial institutions as lenders and HSBC Bank plc as agent bank and security agent, on 11 December 2013.

These credits, in the amounts their holders agree to use for subscription, will satisfy in the moment of their exchange the requirements established in article 301 of the Spanish Companies Act, as shown on the report prepared by the Board of Directors for that purpose. The compliance with the requirement of article 301 for the capitalisation of credits will be confirmed by the certificate issued in the form of a special report before the call of the General Shareholders' Meeting by the Company's auditor, Deloitte, S.L., a Spanish entity with registered office at Pablo Ruiz Picasso 1, Torre Picasso, 28020, with tax identification number (NIF) number B-79104469, which will be completed by an additional certificate that will be issued when the referred requirements are fully met. The report made by the Board of Directors has been issued in accordance with the following provisions of the Spanish Companies Act:

- article 414.2, regarding the bases and forms of exchange into shares;
- article 286, regarding the corresponding amendment of the articles of incorporation of the Company, in connection with article 297.1.a), regarding the

(Free translation from the original in Spanish language)

delegation in the Board of Directors of the power to set the date and conditions of the agreed capital increase; and

- article 301, applicable by way of analogy with regards to the subscription of the Bonds through the capitalization of credits.

Notwithstanding, it is provided the incomplete subscription of both tranches. Consequently, the Issue will be limited to the amount corresponding with the face value of the bonds effectively subscribed and paid by the investors, having no effects for the rest.

- 1.3. Issue price, face value and representation. The Bonds are issued at par, are in registered form, and have a unit face value of 10 Euros. The Bonds are of a single series and will be represented by registered nominative certificates.
- 1.4. Interest rate. The Bonds accrue an annual interest of 2.60% —corresponding with the applicable interest rate under the Override Agreement— from the date of their issue and by reference to the face value of the Bonds, payable at the Final Closing Date— except for cases of anticipated conversion, which will be payable at the conversion date— and in newly-issued common shares of Prisa.
- 1.5. Maturity date. The Bonds will have a term of 2 years, for which reason they will mature on the date two years after the Closing Date (“Final Closing Date”).

When the final maturity date arrives, the Bonds which have not been converted before will be converted mandatorily into newly-issued common shares of Prisa.

- 1.6. Bases for and forms of conversion of the Bonds
 - (a) Conversion of the Bonds. The Bonds are necessarily convertible after two years from the Closing Date. However, Prisa may request the early conversion of the Bonds, totally or partially, at any time after 12 months from the Closing Date, provided that the Company notifies the Commissionaire 15 days in advance. In this case, the Company shall issue the new shares of Prisa resulting from the Conversion Price, taking into account the accrued interests corresponding to the bondholders until the date in which the early conversion was requested, within the month following the request of early conversion.

Likewise, the bondholders will be able to individually request the early conversion of the bonds, totally or partially, if during the 12 months following the Closing Date (i) the Company issues or undertakes to issue new common shares or convertible bonds into common shares to be subscribed through monetary contributions and with pre-emptive rights; (ii) the Spanish Securities Market Regulator (Comisión Nacional del Mercado de Valores) authorizes a takeover bid over the shares of the Company; or (iii) the Company is declared in Bankruptcy. In these cases, the Company will issue the new common shares of Prisa resulting from the Conversion Price within the next month following the early conversion request, taking into account the accrued interests until the date in which the early conversion was requested, with enough time to participate, with regards to case (i), in the General Shareholders’ Meeting that in such case intends to approve the issue and, in any case, when the issue is subject to the approval of the Board of Directors, for the purposes of participating in the aforementioned issue.

After the 12 months following the Closing Date, the bondholders will be entitled to the same early conversion right, including in this case, for the purpose of the early conversion, the accrued interest until the date in which the early conversion was requested.

- (b) Conversion Price. The price of the Prisa shares for purposes of conversion will be 10 Euros (“Conversion Price”).

The Conversion Price will be adjusted, in the following circumstances, according to market standards and taking into account the economic effect that such circumstances may have to the value of the Bonds:

- (i) Free allocation of shares or warrants to the shareholders of the Company.
- (ii) Shares’ split or reverse split transactions.
- (iii) Capital increases by way of capitalisation of reserves, profits or issue premium through an increase in the par value of the shares.
- (iv) Distribution of reserves or issue premium, in cash or in kind.
- (v) Absorption, merger, spinoff or split-up.

Likewise, in the event that, during the 12 months following the Closing Date, (i) the Company executes a capital increase or an issue of convertible bonds into new common shares with pre-emptive rights, or (ii) the Company the issues or commits to issue new common shares or convertible bonds into new common shares to subscribe through monetary contributions and excluding pre-emption rights, in both cases with an issue or conversion price lower than the Conversion Price, the Conversion Price will be automatically adjusted to the price of this newly-issued common shares or convertible bonds.

For clarification purposes, the adjustment established in this subparagraph b) will not be applicable to the resolutions adopted in the General Meeting of Shareholders and to the issue of shares resulting from the exercise of the warrants approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders of Prisa that took place on 10 December 2013.

- (c) Conversion Rate.

The number of newly-issued common shares of Prisa that will be delivered to the bondholders will be determined by dividing the face value of the Bonds and the accrued interest by the Conversion Price on the conversion date. Thus, the conversion rate will be one newly-issued common share per Bond, plus the number of shares corresponding to the accrued interests, which will depend on the date of the conversion.

The share capital that would be needed to meet the needs of the conversion of all the Bonds, assuming that Tranche B is fully subscribed and that all the Bonds are converted into newly-issued common shares of Prisa on the Final Closing

(Free translation from the original in Spanish language)

Date, together with the accrued interests, amounts to 47,370,420 Euros, corresponding to the face value and the number of newly-issued common shares will be 15,790,140. In this case, the part of the capital contributions of the bondholders that corresponds with the premium would rise to 110,530,980 Euros.

1.7. Other terms and conditions

- (a) Security. The Issue is secured by the property of the Company, not being specially secured by any third party guarantee.
- (b) Rules governing priority. The Bonds are direct and unconditional obligations, contractually subordinated to the Company's bank syndicated indebtedness derived from the Override Agreement and otherwise unsubordinated and ranking pari-passu and pro-rata, without any preference, among them or with regards to other existing or future unsecured and unsubordinated debts of the Company, except for, in the case of bankruptcy, those debts that may enjoy a priority as provided in mandatory laws of general application.
- (c) Transferability and admission to trading. The Bonds will only be freely transferable after 12 months of the Closing Date. Admission to trading of the Bonds will not be sought on any secondary market.

1.8. Syndicate of Bondholders and Commissioner

A Syndicate of Bondholders is formed under the name "Syndicate of Bondholders for the 2016 Convertible Bond Issue of Promotora de Informaciones, S.A.", which will act in accordance with its Regulations and the Spanish Companies Act. Fernando Martínez Albacete is appointed as temporary Commissioner. The content of the regulations will be substantially as attached to these resolutions as Annex 1, notwithstanding what provided in articles 419 et seq. of Spanish Companies Act.

B. Absence of pre-emption rights

There will be no pre-emption rights, in accordance with article 416.2 in connection with article 304 of the Spanish Companies Act, which specifies that only in capital increases—in this case, issue of convertible bonds—with newly-issued shares with charge to monetary contributions are the shareholders entitled to subscribe a number of newly-issued shares in proportion to the face value of the shares they already own. Therefore, being this the case of a capital increase through the capitalization of credits set out in article 301 of the Spanish Companies Act and, consequently, not being there any monetary contribution, there will be no pre-emption rights in favour of the shareholders.

C. Resolution to increase capital as necessary to cover conversion of the Bonds

In accordance with the provisions of article 414 of the Spanish Companies Act, it is resolved to increase the Company's capital by the amount necessary to cover such conversion of Bonds up to an initially contemplated maximum of 15,790,140 newly-issued common shares of Prisa, corresponding to the maximum number of shares to be issued by the Company based on the Conversion Price, but subject to such possible changes as may occur as a result of adjustments of the Conversion Price as set forth in this agreement and the total subscription of the Bonds Issue.

The aforesaid capital increase will be implemented by the Board of Directors or, in the event of delegation, by any of its members, Delegate Commission, the President and the Chief Executive Officer, by issuing new common shares having the same par value and the same rights as the outstanding common shares on the date of implementation of the corresponding resolution increasing capital. When the Board of Directors so implements this resolution it will redraft the article of the Bylaws related to capital.

The final number of newly-issued common shares that will be issued upon exercise of the conversion right will be determined by dividing the face amount of the subscribed Bonds and the accrued interests by the Conversion Price in effect on the pertinent conversion date.

In accordance with the provisions of article 304.2. of the Spanish Companies Act, the shareholders of the Company will have no pre-emption right as regards the capital increases resulting from conversion of the Bonds into shares of Prisa.

It is resolved to apply for admission to trading of the newly-issued common shares on the Madrid, Barcelona, Bilbao and Valencia stock exchanges through the Exchange Interconnection System (Continuous Market). The Board of Directors is authorised in turn to delegate to the Delegate Commission, the President and the Chief Executive Officer so that any of them, without distinction, may make the corresponding applications, prepare and present all appropriate documents on the terms they deem to be appropriate and take such actions as may be necessary to that end.

D. Reports and Terms and Conditions

From the time of the publication of the notice of call to the General Meeting the corresponding proposed text of the resolution has been made available to the Company's shareholders, as have, for the purposes contemplated in article 286 in relation to the articles 297.1.a), 414 and 301 of the Spanish Companies Act, the explanatory report of the proposed resolution issued by the Board of Directors, the certification issued as special report by the Company's auditor for the purposes of the article 301 of the Spanish Companies Act and the required report of the Auditor other than the Company's auditor appointed by the Commercial Registry.

E. Delegation of authority

Without prejudice to the specific delegations of authority set forth in the preceding sections, it is resolved to authorise the Board of Directors as broadly as required by law, with express authority to sub-delegate to the Delegate Commission, the President and the Chief Executive Officer so that any of them, without distinction, may implement this resolution, in particular, by way of illustration and not limitation, being authorised:

- (a) to determine the date or dates of issue; the subscription procedure; to develop the bases for and forms of conversion and, in general, to set any other condition of the Issue, specifying all issues non covered herein (in particular, agree with the

- (b) to implement the resolution to increase the Company's capital by issuing and placing in circulation, on one or more occasions, the common shares of Prisa representative thereof that are necessary to carry out the conversion of the Bonds, and to redraft the article of the regulations related to capital, leaving the part of that capital increase that is not necessary for the conversion into common shares of Prisa with no effect, and to apply for admission to trading of the common shares of Prisa so issued on the Madrid, Barcelona, Valencia and Bilbao Stock Exchanges, through the Exchange Interconnection System (Continuous Market);
- (c) to publish the notices related to the Issue, if applicable, to appear before a notary and execute the corresponding public deed of issue of the Bonds covered by this resolution, as well as the notarial certification of subscription and closing of the Issue, if the subscription is documented separately, and to request registration of the aforesaid public deed and notarial certification, if any, in the Commercial Registry. Also, to draft and file any notice or documentation that is necessary or required in respect of the Bonds with any agency, management centre or authority;
- (d) to negotiate and sign or, if applicable, countersign or acknowledge, on the terms it deems to be most appropriate, such contracts as may be required with the financial institutions, if any, participating in the issue and placement of the Bonds;
- (e) on behalf of Prisa to execute such public or private documents as may be necessary or appropriate for the issue of the Bonds covered by this resolution and, in general, to take such actions as may be necessary for implementation of this resolution and effective placement of the Bonds; and
- (f) to correct, clarify, interpret, specify or supplement the resolutions adopted by the General Shareholders Meeting, in such deeds or documents as may be executed in implementation thereof and, in particular, such defects, omissions or errors, substantive or formal, as may prevent entry of the resolutions and the consequences thereof in the Commercial Registry, Official Registries of the National Securities Market Commission, or any others.
